RESURRECTION AND REDEMPTION

In the teachings of the Apostolic Church, the resurrection was seen as heralding a new era. Forming a theology of the resurrection fell to Apostle Paul. It was not enough for Paul to simply repeat elementary teachings, but as Hebrews 6:1 states, “go beyond the initial teachings about Christ and advance to maturity.” Fundamental to Pauline theology is the connection between Christ’s Resurrection and redemption. Paul explained the importance of the resurrection of Jesus as the cause and basis of the hope of Christians to share a similar experience.

Has this Easter been a new era in your life. A time to recommit to the teachings of Jesus Christ? A time to live the way of a Christian—free from sin and assured that salvation will be granted to you?

The teachings of Apostle Paul formed a key element of the Christian tradition and theology. If the cross stands at the center of Paul’s theology, so does the Resurrection: unless the one died the death of all, the all would have little to celebrate in the resurrection of the one. Paul taught that, just as Christians share in Jesus’ death in baptism, so they will share in his resurrection for Jesus was designated the Son of God by His Resurrection (Romans 1:4). In 1 Corinthians 15:20-22, Paul states: “But Christ really has been raised from the dead. He is the first of all those who will rise. Death came because of what a man did. Rising from the dead also comes because of what a man did. Because of Adam, all people die. So because of Christ, all will be made alive.”

I pray that the reality of Jesus Christ’s Resurrection is a reality of our resurrection—a time when others will know us by our works because of our faith in Christ. We are part of the living history of the Church founded on the Resurrection.

The Apostolic Fathers, discussed the death and resurrection of Jesus, including Ignatius, Polycarp, and Justin Martyr. Following the conversion of Constantine and the liberating Edict of Milan in 313, the ecumenical councils of the 4th, 5th and 6th centuries, that focused on Christology helped shape the Christian understanding of the redemptive nature of Resurrection, and influenced both the development of its iconography, and its use within Liturgy.

Belief in bodily resurrection was a constant note of the Christian church in antiquity. And nowhere was it argued for more strongly than in North Africa. Saint Augustine accepted it at the time of his conversion in 386. Augustine defended Resurrection, and argued that given that Christ has risen, there is Resurrection of the Dead. Moreover, he argued that the death and resurrection of Jesus was for the salvation of man, stating: “to achieve each resurrection of ours, the savior paid with his single life, and he pre-enacted and presented his one and only one by way of sacrament and by way of model.

The 5th century theology of Theodore of Mopsuestia provides an insight into the development of the Christian understanding of the redemptive nature of Resurrection. The crucial role of the sacraments in the mediation of salvation was well ac-

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Χριστός Ανέστη! Christos Anesti!

The pervasive sense of community that is so evident in everything we do is especially abundant during the Paschal season and represents the best of who we are as a parish. The overwhelming outpouring of love and devotion so prevalent during Holy Week is a joy to behold and a constant reminder of how blessed we truly are and of all the many positive aspects of our community. Everyone’s willingness to pitch in and help was especially appreciated and made this Pascha among the most memorable in years.

So, on behalf of the Parish Council, I would like to thank all those who selflessly gave of themselves and made our Holy Week events and festivities such a success. Our sincere thanks go to everyone who folded palms for Palm Sunday; to Sophia Tsangali and all those who participated in adorning the Epitaphio and to those who carried it; to our altar boys, choir, and chanters; to the girls who served as myrrhbearers; to the ladies Philoptochos for all their excellent baked goods; to Charlie Euripides for his most excellent lentil soup and to GOYA for the sandwiches and snacks provided on Good Friday; to John Gouvis for a wonderful fish dinner on Palm Sunday and for the delicious magiritsa soup all of us enjoyed in the wee hours of Easter morning; to Androula Demetriou for the Easter eggs and to Ramona Velezis and her daughters, Theodora Black and Martha Velezis, who dyed them; to GOYA for donating the tulle bags and to Andrea Ballard, Christina McKenna, and Presv. Pauline who put all the Easter eggs in them; to our custodial staff whose ceaseless efforts to go above and beyond the call of duty are always appreciated; to Keith Wooldridge who donated a new video camera that enabled us to reinstitute “Saint Katherine Live” streaming Internet feeds of Church services during Holy Week; and thereafter to Ted Theocharis who most ably installed the new device and who provided the video feed displayed to the overflow crowds outdoors during the weekend.

Our loving esteem and gratitude to our Proistamenos Fr. Costas, to our new assistant priest, Fr. Panagiotis, Fr. Christodoulos, and Fr. Milan for most ably shepherding their flock through Holy Week. Thanks to Presv. Pauline for her tireless efforts to keep the community abreast of latest developments and schedules via our website, DOXA, and emails. Thanks to Dr. George Silis for augmenting the Parish Council at many services during Holy Week and to Jim Ballard, Ari Chronis, Themis Chronis, and Steve Veletsis who all pitched in to sell candles outdoors. A special thanks to all parishioners for graciously embracing our transition to new lambathes for Holy Week as a means of minimizing damage to the sanctuary from candle drippings.

Our community’s overwhelming response (over 300 enthusiastic attendees) to our inaugural Easter Lamb Roast and Picnic after the Agape Service on Easter morning also marked the beginning of an exciting new tradition in our parish. We are especially indebted to Mallamo Mavromatakis and Artemis Dimopoulos for their work to plan and ensure the event’s enormous success and to the Skenteris and Dimopoulos families for preparing the lamb and generously catering a most excellent, not to mention, delicious event. We also wish to thank Cathy Cavallo, Georgia Chronis, Elvira Garnett, Irene Kavros, Rena Pikrallidas, Katerina Voudouris, and Demetra Vroustouris for baking the baklava and galatobouriko and other sweets enjoyed by everyone at our Easter picnic.

Last but not least, my special thanks to the men and women of our parish whose commitment to the community is embodied in their service as Parish Council members. We are very grateful to everyone who worked so hard to make our Holy Week so memorable. The sheer number of parishioners involved in making our observance of Holy Pascha such a success is a testament to our community’s enduring love and vitality. Thank you! Και του χρόνου.

Your servant in Christ,

President, Parish Council

CATECHETICAL (SUNDAY) SCHOOL

CHRIST IS RISEN! TRULY HE IS RISEN!

Amazingly, we are fast approaching the end of the 2013-2014 Catechetical School year. The staff trusts that each of our students has had an enjoyable and productive year. We want to thank the parents for bringing your children to Church and to class. The teachers appreciate your faith as we pursue this educational mission of the Holy Orthodox Church. This year we again registered in excess of 200 students! Catechetical School graduation will be on Sunday, May 18, following second liturgy. School will be in session at 9:30am on graduation day.

This is an exciting time for our students, and increasingly busy for our graduating seniors who are preparing to take that next critically important step out of high school. The catechetical knowledge and wisdom they have absorbed will serve as an armor they wear—indeed, they have put on the armor of Christ!

GOYA
CHRISTOS ANESTI! CHRIST IS RISEN.

GOYA would like to thank everyone for your support of our annual basketball tournament last month and for your support of GOYA programs throughout the year.

GOYA has church duty on Sunday, May 18. Dean Campbell will be the GOYA Captain and Epistle reader.

GOYA basketball practices are scheduled for Thursdays, May 1, 8, and 15 at 7:00pm.

WHY LEARN GREEK?

Eleni Alexopoulou

As I was reflecting on my appointment to the position of the HEC director, it has been a year already since I was interviewed by the Board of Education—it is important to let you know that this has been quite a productive school year. As I was also thinking on how to continue on my series of reasons why should anyone learn Greek, a parent forwarded me an email with a link to Ms. Yanna Darilis’s personal experience growing up in a Greek Orthodox community in the USA. I believe it is quite appropriate to bring this article to your attention now, as a new Greek school curriculum has been developed by a focus committee in order to address the complicated and delicate issue of student attrition in our Greek school. Over the years, the older students sadly have been losing interest in attending Greek school. I was surprised to see literally parents dragging their children to school in September regardless of how the students felt.

The Board of Education had already decided to take action. One being the introduction of a new curriculum based on teacher’s observations for many years, research and experience on teaching a second language—Greek in our case. A committee was created to identify the problems and develop a strategy to take place. However, the new curriculum that will be implemented in the Fall by our dedicated teachers can only help our students reach their full potential if other conditions are in place; one is the whole community’s support as learners of the Greek culture in more depth and the second is the parents’ involvement in the life of the church. Ms. Yanna’s attitude towards the Greek language and heritage should be everyone’s if we want to lead our Greek school students to excel in their education and be proud of it. After all this is our HEC’s motto; “Always to excel.”

“I am of Greek heritage and was born and raised in the United States. I am proud to say I am a graduate of the Archdiocese school system. When I attended college, I grew to appreciate even more the importance of our great Greek culture, history, philosophy, Greek orthodox religion, and, the one thing that unites it all, our Greek language. When I lived in Greece in 1994, as a Greek American, I realized even more that it was my church and community back in New York that contributed to these great gifts of Hellenism. My community gave me a sense of belonging, and it allowed me to establish friendships that have remained with me throughout my life. My community was also responsible for my deep-rooted spirituality, the learning and appreciation of Greece’s great history, and most of all, the gift of the Greek language.

Philologist Francisco Rodriguez Adrados of Madrid’s Complutense University acknowledges the role of ancient languages, such as Egyptian, Sumerian, Hebrew and Arabic. However, if judged on the influence they have had over other European languages, he said: “Greek is the first language in the world. The Greek language is not only alive in Greece, but has a second life; its alphabet, vocabulary, syntax and literature are present in all languages.” She continues, “What moved me to speak Greek? My heritage, the challenge, the awakening that takes you to other levels after understanding the depth, meaning and beauty of words, empowerment through words.”

Το πρώτο στήριγμα, στο οποίο υπολογίζουν οι νέοι, είναι οι δυνάμεις τους, οι συμματικές και οι διανοητικές. Λένε, έχουν πεπειραμένο στον εαυτό τους. Και μέσα τους λοιπόν υπάρχει η πεπειραμένη ηθική που της δύναμης τους αρκεί και ότι δεν έχουν ανάκησει. Αλλά οι άνθρωποι που αναμένονται να δοθείση, δεν είναι όλοι αυτοί. Αλλά ανθρώποι που θέλουν να δοθείση, δεν είναι όλοι οι παραγόντες της ζωής. Ας κάνουμε τον χρήσιμο και τον κάθε αυτό που έχεις ζωής, και έκανες λίγο περισσότερο, αλλά έχεις ζωής, και λίγο περισσότερο. Ας κάνουμε άλλοις ανθρώποις, ας κάνουμε άλλοις ανθρώποις. Ας κάνουμε άλλοις ανθρώποις, ας κάνουμε άλλοις ανθρώποις.

TΟ ΚΡΕΜΥΔΙ ΤΗΣ ΓΡΙΑΣ

του θεοδ. Ντοστογιέφσκι απο το βιβλίο: «Αδελφοί Καραμάζωφ»

Σε ένα χωριό ζούσε μία σεβάσμια γερόντισσα. Την εκτιμούσε όλοι ο κόσμος μα perissóstero εκτιμούσε η ίδια τον εαυτό της. Μία μέρα η γερόντισσα αυτή πέθανε. Εκλείπει τα μάτια της και κοιμήθηκε. Με όταν σε λίγα ξύπνησε στην άλλη ζωή διαπίστωσε ότι είχε βρεθεί σε μία λίμνη - φωτιά. Και βλέποντας κάποια στιγμή τον άγγελό της στην οχή του φώναξε:

«Κάποιο λάθος έγινε!! Εγώ πρόσωπο σεβαστό να βρίσκομαι εδώ!! Ο άγγελος την συμπόνησε και προσπάθησε να βρεί ελαφρυντικά για να την βοηθήσει. Θυμήθηκε λόγω ότι κάποτε έδωσε σε μία ζητήτρια ένα φρέσκο κρεμύδι. Κρατώντας το λοιπόν από το φύλλα της το έριξε μπροστά της. «Πάστα το, να σε τραβήξω έξω της επί. Εκείνη το έπιασε και ο άγγελος άρχισε να την τραβάει έξω από την λίμνη - φωτιά. Βλέποντάς την να βγαίνει από το πύρι της κλώσας αρπάχτηκαν από εσώρους της, από το τέλος από τα χέρια, άλλοι πολλοί με την ελπίδα να βγουν έξω και να σωθούν. Αλλά η σεβάσμια γερόντισσα θύμισε εναντίον τους. Άρχισε να φωνάζει; Αλοιμόνο να κρεμαστεί η άληθινη του κόσμου πάνω μου; Και άρχισε να τους κλωστάει όλους. «Με το δικό μου το κρεμώντας, θέλουν να σωθούν όλοι αυτοί;» Το βλαστάρει του κρεμωμένο κόπηκε και όλοι μαζί με την σεβάσμια γερόντισσα ξανάπεσαν στο αίωνιο τύρ.”

Χριστέ μου, βοηθήστε εμάς και τα παιδιά μας να καλλιεργούμε την αρετή της ευσπλαχνίας και της Αγάπης! Αμήν.

I AM LEARNING HOW TO LIVE
Jamey Wysocki

I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.
I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them
With every tear that I shed.
I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on
Through the memories that remain.
I am learning how to live
Knowing you’re in God’s care
It gives me the strength to move on
And makes the pain much easier to bear.

Saint Katherine Greek Orthodox Church offers a grief support group, GRACE (Grief Recovery: Accepting, Coping, and Evolving). For further information, please call Fr. Costa Pavlakos at 703-671-1515.

Thank you to Maria Papageorgiou for contributing articles nearly every month for the last 10 years.
MISSIONS AND OUTREACH

Food Pantry Collection. Our next quarterly food pantry drive will occur on Sunday, May 4. Please bring non-perishable food or canned items to the church that day. A list is on the Saint Katherine website. Please place the items in the cloth bags that will be distributed at church. Big thanks to Rebecca Leung and Marilyn Rouvelas who are donating the cloth bags. Please be generous. Get the children involved. What a wonderful way to teach our children to help the less fortunate

Project Mexico, August 13-19. Our next mission trip to Project Mexico will take place August 13-19, 2014. A team of 10 will be involved with home building and helping at the St. Innocence Orphanage. Ray Vazquez and Bill Porter will lead this mission. This is a great opportunity for adults and teenagers to witness their faith and enjoy an experience that will change their lives. If you are interested in more information, please contact Ray Vazquez at rayvazquez1@aol.com. The price of the trip is $1,000.00 plus air fare to San Diego. If you would like to donate or sponsor one of our missionaries, please make your check payable to Saint Katherine and note “Project Mexico” and the name of the missionary on the trip.

Cuba Mission Team Returns. Fr. Costa and his team of nine from Saint Katherine returned safely from Havana, Cuba and then made a moving presentation on Friday, March 28, after the 4th Salutations Service. Each member related their experiences in working with the Cuban people who had recently converted to Orthodoxy. They highlighted the hunger the people had to learn more about their new faith. This was the first-ever Orthodox team mission trip to Cuba. Fr. Costa is planning a return trip in the near future. Watch the DOXA for details.

April 13 Diaper Drive a Success. Our first diaper drive of the year was held on Palm Sunday, April 13. Thanks to all who contributed. We were able to distribute much needed diapers to Food for Others in Fairfax and Alternative House in Tysons. Since Federal food stamps cannot be used for diapers, this is a great help to mothers with infants at the shelters. Our next diaper drive will be December 7.

Alaska Trip. We are pleased to learn that Natalie Garbarino of our sister parish, Saint Rafael Orthodox Church in Chantilly, has been chosen for an OCMC team to Old Harbor, Alaska. Natalie came to our recent Missions committee and made a brief presentation. Congratulations, Natalie. We encourage everyone to look at the upcoming teams from the OCMC and prayerfully consider going on a short-term mission trip. Our Saint Katherine website has a full listing of the upcoming teams.

Monumental Mission Walk, November 15. As reported in the last DOXA, our 2014 Monumental Mission Walk is on!! We have been given a permit for Saturday, November 15th. Our tent will be at 15th Street and Constitution Ave. Jen and Alex Carr will coordinate this year’s walk to benefit Orthodox missions internationally and locally.

Specific details will appear in a future DOXA. In 2013 we had 184 participants. Come join us this year!

FOCUS Presentations. Niko Petrogeorge, a staff member of the Fellowship of Orthodox Christians United to Serve (FOCUS), visited Saint Katherine on Thursday and Friday, March 13-14. On Thursday night, we hosted a large turnout from all the area Orthodox Churches to hear of the work of FOCUS and how we as an Orthodox community can participate. Friday night, Niko spoke to the St. Katherine community after the Akathist Service. FOCUS is one of the newer ministries of the Assembly of Orthodox Bishops. Their stated purpose is to “...help the poor and needy in North America...to help transform all of our lives and break the cycle of poverty that afflicts so many in our society.” Although our Missions and Outreach Committee is already involved in many of these activities, we hope that through FOCUS we can unite all Orthodox churches in the metropolitan area in reaching out to the poor and the afflicted.

Orthodox Prison Ministry. “I was in prison and you visited me” (Matthew 25:36). At our most recent Missions and Outreach meeting on April 8, we were honored to have Christians Roulakis, of the Orthodox Christian Prison Ministry (OCPM) make a compelling presentation on this new ministry of the Assembly of Orthodox Bishops. Their mission is “to bring the love of Christ to those who are in prison by providing encouragement, material support, transition and integrative services, Christian education, spiritual guidance and the sacramental life of the Church. We hope to present local opportunities for prison ministry in our area. For more information, go to their web site: www.theocpm.org

OCMC Benefit Dinner 2015. Next year, our OCMC benefit dinner will feature Rev. John Chakos who is our long-term missionary in Guatemala. Fr. Chakos had served for many years in Pittsburgh, but now he and his wife are working with the new Orthodox Church in Guatemala. He will share with us the exciting events occurring in Guatemala as hundreds of thousands are converting to Orthodoxy. Learn how the Church is ministering to them.

BAILEY’S CROSSROADS HOMELESS SHELTER

Feed the Homeless. Our Mission and Outreach Committee will be serving dinner in May. If any of our other church organizations would like to serve at the shelter, please contact Dr. John Demakis at demakis9931@gmail.com.

Clothing and Toiletries. We continue to collect clothing and toiletries for the homeless shelter all year long. Bring new or clean used clothes and unopened toiletries to the foyer of the Meletis Charuhas Hall.

Next Meeting. The next meeting of the Missions and Outreach Committee will be on Tuesday, May 6, 7:00pm.

PAST BELIEF: VISIONS OF EARLY CHRISTIANITY IN RENAISSANCE AND REFORMATION EUROPE

This year, the A.W. Mellon lectures are being presented by Anthony Grafton, Professor of History at Princeton University. In the first lecture, “How Jesus Celebrated Passover: The Jewish Origins of Christianity” Professor Grafton discussed how the Last Supper was a subject that fascinated early antiquarians.

The Eucharist was seen as a way to transport people to that final meal; the image and practice infused with powerful meaning. He noted how depictions of the supper by two artists, da Vinci and Nicolas Poussin in 1647, varied in their portrayal, or not, of practices that would have been “Roman.” Whereas da Vinci has Christ and the Apostles looking solemn and seated upright at a long table, Poussin paints some of the Apostles lying on couches. Other painters even included matzoh bread on the table.

The second lecture tackled the complex nature of these early writings. Each church claimed to have the pure, real doctrine. Cesare Baronio, a cardinal at the Vatican, wrote 12 volumes titled Ecclesiastical Annals from Christ’s birth to 1198, first published in 1588. He wanted to assert that the Catholic church had always been the same. Another ecclesiastical scholar, Isaac Casaubon, sought to write his own Annals from the Protestant perspective. Before them, the first historian and polemicist was Eusebius, with an Ecclesiastical History in 324 A.D.

Mr. Grafton infuses each sentence with so much information, crossing disciplines and centuries with ease; making references and jokes too. If you want to test the mettle of your intellect, go and see why most people emerge from the lecture hall with a glazed look in their eyes from so much input. I know I need to attend all 6 lectures in order to even get a small idea of this incredibly complicated subject. But it is so very interesting that it is definitely worth the while.

Lectures will be held on Sundays, May 4 and 11 at 2:00pm in the National Gallery’s East Auditorium. A screening of the May 4 lecture will be held on Thursday, May 8 and a screening of the May 11 lecture will be held on Thursday, May 15. Both screenings will be at 12:00 noon in the West Building lecture hall.

CHRISTOS ANESTI,

accepted at the time. In Theodore’s representation of the Eucharist, the sacrificial and salvific elements are combined in the “One who saved us and delivered us by the sacrifice of Himself”. Theodore’s interpretation of the Eucharistic rite is directed towards the triumph over the power of death brought about by the Resurrection.

The emphasis on the salvific nature of the Resurrection continued in Christian theology in the next centuries, e.g., in the 8th century Saint John of Damascus wrote that: “. . . When he had freed those who were bound from the beginning of time, Christ returned again from among the dead, having opened for us the way to resurrection” and Christian iconography of the ensuing years represented that concept.

In the Gospel of John, chapter 11, verses 25-26, Christ says, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. He who believes in me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?” Our answer is, and always shall be, “Yes, Lord, I believe.” It is with this affirmative statement of our belief that we shall be alive and pro-active in our faith.

I will see you in Church, I will work with you to fulfill His commandments, and, most of all, we will all celebrate Liturgy together every Sunday. If you believe, then you should practice what you believe.

Christos Anesti,

teachings as it grew in the Spirit, came to the only conclusions that fit the life and words of Christ as a totality. Fanous goes on to assess the thoughts of modern Christian and Jewish theologians and scholars on these sayings and their first-century context. All in all, Fanous provides a thoroughly documented and well thought out foundation for his analysis.

Dr. Daniel Fanous has extensively studied and taught New Testament theology, as well as holding degrees in medicine and engineering.
