THE ONE WHO DIES WITH THE MOST TOYS WINS

The other day, I saw this bumper sticker, “The one who dies with the most toys wins.” It was on the back of a Toyota. I chuckled because that is not my idea of a car to die for. It made me reflect on what we Christians think of as victory in this life. In today’s consumer-driven society, we are all taught that success is not only measured in how much we accumulate for ourselves, but that truly successful people are self-made.

Education, hard work, willingness to put aside personal life to succeed, and any other “virtue” of success all are seen as things we accomplish by individual effort. There is no sense of our dependence upon God for all we have in life, including talents, determination, and even the blessing of being “in the right place at the right time.” The world does not teach that God is the Source and Owner of all life, and certainly does not teach that true success demands that we let go of ownership. Part of our reluctance to let go of ownership in this world stems from a lack of trust in the Lord. We worry, “If I really let go, what will happen?” But, we have many examples of what will happen. Jesus Himself told us, “Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things [everything that one needs] shall be yours as well” (Matthew 6:33). Look at the story of Abraham,

And the Lord’s request that he take his only son, Isaac, and offer Him as a sacrifice (Genesis 22:1-19). Abraham let go of his ownership, and was ready to offer his son (far more than a simple gift of time, talent, or treasure!) to God. When Isaac asked his father why they had taken everything but the sacrificial offering, Abraham responded, “God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son” (Genesis 22:8).

We have the perfect example of letting go of ownership in the Eucharist. We can be tempted to believe that we are offering “our” gifts—bread we baked with our own hands, wine purchased to make an offering—but that is false. The bread would not have been possible without god providing grain for the flour and the wine would not have been possible without the sun-kissed grapes fermenting. God provides it all. When we let go of ownership, what happens? God accepts the bread and wine offered as gifts and doesn’t consume them in a ball of fire, or make them vanish in some magical disappearing act, or hoard them for Himself. The simple bread and wine accept by God is transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ and then to show Who the real Owner is and the real intention of that Owner, the transformed bread and wine is given back to us! God’s desire in accepting our offering is not to get something for Himself, rather to give each one of us the opportunity to be like Him in giving.

We will answer at the Judgment Seat for the way we use what God has loaned to us. We will not answer only about our own offerings, but also about the way we used even what God gave us for our own benefit. This is why we are stewards of the church. We cannot always make a difference in the lives of people as individuals, but collectively as a Church, we can accomplish much more in ministry. A Christian steward brings offerings to the church for its care and use. It is important to state that the Church and each individual parish are called to be stewards.

SOME OF YOU MAY RECALL an old television show called “The A-Team” whose leading character often delighted in saying “I love it when a plan comes together!” Well, I’ve been thinking that myself the last several weeks as a number of projects have begun to develop into maturity. Most notable perhaps is the repair and enhancements to the front entrance of our church. By the time many of you read this, you will be able to see the stunning new entrance featuring new stone steps and walls surrounding our church that add great depth and beauty. New sidewalks are also part of this enhancement and allow easy access to the front of the church for those desiring where none was available previously. Additionally, a memorial brick feature surrounding the base of the church walls will soon be available enabling parishioners to honor loved ones past and present. Finally, by the time this article goes to press, a new 22’ x 25’ patio will also have been added to our Seniors Kentro along with a new set of doors (graciously donated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burton) providing access and greatly expanding utility and comfort for everyone using that popular facility. We have also repaired about a dozen and a half broken curbs throughout our parking lot that had been damaged due to snow removal equipment.

Although these enhancements to our physical plant have been visible and noteworthy, many other improvements are also underway in the sanctuary itself. A new bronze donor plaque is being acquired to honor major iconography donors, as well as a bronze memorial which will be placed directly adjacent to the candle stand in the Narthex. Additionally, new bronze railings leading up to the solea are also being installed. Finally, a plaque honoring Mr. George Nicolopoulos, one our community’s earliest great benefactors is also contemplated.

We were also able to recently satisfy a pressing need to replace our seriously outdated point of sale/register system used to enable credit purchases, track inventories and provide management reporting for all our festival activities. The new system, along with its new secure Wi-Fi network, is in place and many of you will witness its many conveniences and benefits first hand during our festival. I’d like to express my personal gratitude to Brian and Sophia Bohle for their help in identifying these new systems. We have also incorporated this efficient new technology in our bookstore to great effect as well. Mention of the bookstore also brings to mind that Fran Kalavritinos, who founded the bookstore, has stepped down after many years of dedicated service to our community. We are indebted to Fran for making our Saint Katherine bookstore such a success over the years! We also wish to welcome Georgia McKinney who has agreed to take up this wonderful ministry.

In the coming months, improvements will continue as we introduce a newly revised donations page on our web site making it easier than ever to fulfill your stewardship obligations or make other donations to the church safely, securely and conveniently using online capabilities. Additionally, we will be introducing a new kiosk which will enable parishioners so inclined to purchase candles, and make donations and other payments via credit card in a similar manner. This capability has been requested by young and old parishioners alike and details will be provided in the very near future.

So far, I’ve been talking about “things,” which is all well and good, but now I’d like to take just a few moments to talk about our most precious commodity—our children. As you all know, our schools began last month. Our Greek School continues to provide meaningful language instruction to young and old alike. Our preschool begins the year with close to 40 students and we anticipate the launch of our Kindergarten program in September of 2017, God willing. The metamorphosis that occurs in our community when school begins is always amazing as constant activity becomes the norm. I confess the tiniest of those smiling faces filling our classrooms always bring me great joy. (Just the other day a little two-year-old walked by my office holding her teacher’s hand and looked in to tell me what was on her mind. “I just made a poop, but I didn’t mean to,” she said rather matter-of-factly. When I smiled and told her everything would be OK and not to worry about it, she looked at me earnestly and said, “Yea, I know.”)

I’d like to thank all of our teaching staff—at all levels—for their untiring efforts on behalf of our children. Their commitment and dedication to our children’s education is a blessing indeed.

Finally, I would again like to remind everyone about our Annual Gala, to be held at the Hilton McLean on Sunday, November 6. On that evening, we will gather to again reflect upon the many blessings God has bestowed upon our community and to also honor John Agnos and Pierre Tavoularis for their many selfless efforts over the years on behalf of our Saint Katherine community. Gala tickets and ads for the dinner journal are always available for purchase in the Meletis Charuhas Community Center after Liturgy on Sundays.

On behalf of our Parish Council, I wish each of you happy, healthy, and safe month of October.

Your servant in Christ,

GOYA (saint-katherines.org/ministries/groups/goya)

GOYANS ARE EXPECTED TO WORK at least one shift during our church’s Fall Festival (October 7-9). Please contact Andrea Ballard (andreaballard1@verizon.net) or George Moshos (gmoshos@aol.com) to volunteer.

GOYAs are expected to help with Youth Church Duty Sunday on October 23. Stephanie Vazquez will be GOYA Captain and Epistle Reader. All GOYAns are expected to be in church that day. You can help with pangari duty, sing in the choir, serve in the altar, or pray in the pews.

GOYAs will participate in the Saint George, Bethesda tournament October 15-16 and the Saint Sophia, DC tournament October 29-30. GOYA basketball practice has been changed to Wednesdays at 6:30pm. Please note that practice will not be held on October 5 due to festival setup.

All teenagers of our community are encouraged to join GOYA. Visit the address above for health/registration forms (dues are $30), advisor and coach contact information, activities, and more. Please email GOYA_St_Katherine@msn.com with any questions.

HOPE (ages 7 and under)

HOPE WILL HAVE AN OUTING at Roer’s Zoofari in Vienna (www.roerszoofari.com), Saturday, October 29, 1:00pm. The children can enjoy a wagon ride, visit the petting barn and reptile house, and go on a budgiey (i.e., birds) adventure. Ticket prices are $15 for adults and $10 for kids ages 2 to 12. This price includes one free wagon ride. If families want to feed the animals, that will cost extra and can be purchased in the gift shop. Please RSVP to Mary Charuhas (703-519- 5607 or msiatis@hotmail.com) by Sunday, October 2. If there is sufficient interest (15 or more people), we might be able to get a group rate.

Ultimately, to live as an Orthodox Christian means to love God and to trust Him. Our offerings to the Lord through the Church are tangible gifts from the tangible blessings that exist in our lives. If we love the Lord Jesus Christ, we show it by striving to live a Christian life, which includes prayer, fasting, almsgiving, repentance, participation in the sacraments, and regular proportional giving to provide the Church (the Body of Christ) with the means to perform His mission in this world.

The bread you do not use is the bread of the hungry. The garment hanging in your wardrobe is the garment of the person who is naked. The shoes you do not wear are the shoes of the one who is barefoot. The money you keep locked away is the money of the poor. The acts of charity you do not perform are the injustices you commit (Saint Basil the Great).

Then I say to all of us, winning is not how much we have accumulated in the end, but how much we have given.

Be a steward of your Church!

Fr. Costa
Paideia Preschool. We are excited to begin the year with 35 students enrolled in the program. Paideia Preschool offers 2, 3, and 5 days options for a half day (9:00am-12:30pm), full day (9:00am-3:30pm), and full day with before- and after-care services (7am-6pm). We have a staff of 9 teachers and assistants who are experienced and nurturing with the young students (ages 2-5 year old). Our curriculum is play-based, enriched by the bilingual nature of the program designed to introduce our students and their families to the life of our Saint Katherine community and our Orthodox faith early on. We welcome new students 2-5 year old! Enrollment for 2016-2017 school year is open year round!

Family Fun Night. Our Family Fun Night fundraiser is coming up Saturday, October 22. This is our main fundraiser for the year. We have a lot of fun activities planned for our young friends such as face painting, magician show, music and dance, and a lot of raffle items. The theme of the event is inspired by children’s literature book characters. Every family is kindly asked to decorate a pumpkin as a character from a book. We encourage all to ask your child who their favorite character is and spend time decorating a big pumpkin accordingly. We also ask that you bring the book to the event, place it next to the pumpkin, and donate it to Paideia in order to include it in our library. Have fun and be creative! This event is open to all families of the community with younger children in the preschool age. Please consider inviting friends and neighbors with young children to help our programs grow!

Greek School. Greek School registration is open for 2016-2017. We welcome new students! Our language programs follow the ACTFL guidelines for teaching heritage languages. The students are placed in the level that best matches their oral and written abilities. The goal of the program is to provide them with the tools to become proficient in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In alignment with Arlington Public Schools, when children are proficient in another language, they are eligible for high school credits. There is a written exam offered for the Greek language as well. Last year, two of our students, took the exams and earned 4 credits which they can use towards their high school diploma. Congratulations to all our Greek School students who took the Ellinomatheia Exam in May 2016 and successfully passed it. Ellinomatheia levels are also aligned with the ACTFL levels so our students have the choice of being certified in either or both certificates recognized in the USA and outside the USA.

Adult Language Classes. There are three classes offered for the teaching of the Greek language to adults: 7:00pm-9:00pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays and 5:00pm-7:00pm on Fridays.

For more information on any of the HEC programs or open house dates, please contact the director at 703-671-7715 or ealexopoulou@stkchurch.com.

AGAMEMNON TO ALEXANDER THE GREAT

Joanna Bose

AS AMBITIOUS AS THE TITLE of an exhibit currently at the National Geographic Museum may seem, it lives up to its promise. In conjunction with 3 episodes on The Greeks shown on PBS earlier this summer, and which provided a timeline that one can reference, one is given a detailed and fascinating history of the earliest beginnings of Greek civilization leading up to Alexander.

Starting with the Neolithic times, around 10,000 B.C., where evidence in a huge cave on mainland Greece indicates that dwellers were there, the next logical step was to emerge and become a seafaring people. Boat-building, navigation, and trade with nearby Cyprus (for copper) and as far away as Afghanistan for tin in order to create bronze, these early Greeks were moving toward metalwork and forging arms.

The first settlements were on the Cyclades; later on Crete where the Minoan civilization flourished as they built elaborate and sophisticated palaces, which included plumbing and earthquake-proof technology, while also developing the art of fresco painting, depicting life at the palaces. Also at this time, the Minoans developed the Linear A tablet form of writing, essentially an ideogram where goods like wine and oil could be documented on the bills of lading of trade routes.

The Minoans were wiped out by the more advanced Mycenaeans, who were masters of warfare. They developed the Linear B tablet, which had a more defined script, the early form of Ancient Greek. Agamemnon was said to have been the first King to unite the Greeks in avenging the honor of his brother Menelaus following the abduction of Helen. But questions are raised as to whether Agamemnon ever existed. Homer depicted him as the Lord of Mycenae long after the citadel had fallen into ruin. It was at Mycenae that the gold funerary masks of Agamemnon were found—and two are on display.

What was really interesting for me to see were the similarities between the Greek burial practices and those of the Egyptians. A warrior, for instance, had his sword buried with him along with some pots; but the sword was his identity. The higher classes had their gold crowns and jewelry. You will see some beautiful gold crowns with finely detailed leaves on display.

The Classical period room contains sculptures and examples of literature and philosophy, including the Homeric writings and dramatic works. And finally, there’s the beautiful marble head of Alexander. True to the Greek idea of glorification of the hero, he is beautiful—his features comely, the exaggerated size of his head creating the impact of awe.

ΕΙΝΑΙ ΔΥΝΑΤΟΝ και στην σημερινή εποχή μας να γίνουμε άγιοι ή μήπως ήταν ένα ιδανικό που ισχύει μόνο στις περασμένες εποχές και σταμάτησε να ισχύει τώρα; Η αγιότητα δεν είναι φαντάσμα που περικλείεται σε ωρισμένο τόπο και χρόνο. Το να πλησιάσει κάποιος τον Χριστό είναι ένα ιδανικό που σε όλες τις εποχές και στους τόπους μπορεί να γίνει πραγματικότητα.

Ας δούμε όμως ποιοί είναι οι συγκεκριμένοι λόγοι που μάς ενθάδεσμενότατα και γεγυνώνει την επιτυχία της αγιότατης εποχής μας. Αν διαβάσαμε την σχετική ιστορία θα διαπιστώσαμε ότι η εποχή μας δεν διαφέρει πολύ σε κακία από άλλες εποχές, ίσως μάλλον να είναι και λιγότερο κακή. Επομένως, αν έχουμε αγίους στις προηγούμενες εποχές, μπορούμε να έχουμε αγίους και στις μέρες μας, όπως π.χ. ο Άγιος Νεκτάριος, ο Άγιος Πορφύριος, ο Άγιος Παύσιος... Παραδείγματα, η εποχή που έζησε και αναπτύχθηκε η πρώτη εκκλησία, η εποχή του ήγου ιωάννου του Χρυσοστόμου, που, όπως περιγράφει ο ιερός Πατέρας, τόσο πολλές κακίες, ιδίες με τις δίκες μας υπήρχαν, όπως θεατραία, ιπποδρόμια, αδιαφορία για την εκκλησία, κοινωνική αδικία, δεσποτισμός, αυτορριχότητα αρχόντων. Πρέπει να έχουμε υπ’ όμηρο και να μην νομίζουμε ότι η εποχή των αγίων ανεμέτρητη, ενδέχεται δεν μάς αφήνουν να αγίασουμε. Και όμως πόσοι αγίοι αναδείχτηκαν σ’ αυτή!’

Ιδιαίτερα στην εποχή μας υπάρχουν πνευματικές φωλιές, μέσα στις οποίες μπορούμε να αναπτύξουμε την αγιότητα, όπως η εκκλησία, οι πνευματικές και εποικισμικές ομιλίες και τα εκκλησιαστικά κηρύματα, το κατηχητικό σχολείο, η χριστιανική κατακαίγμην, η επίσκεψη σε κάποιους τόπους και χώρους, αλλά και οι πολλές άλλες ευκαιρίες και οι άλλοι τομείς του χριστιανικού έργου, με την ερατοστουλή, την φιλανθρωπία, την πτώση σε αρρώστους, φυλακισμένους και παγεμένους, ο καλός και ο χριστιανικός λόγος μας και τόσο άλλοι κλπ. Το σπουδαιότερο όμως και πάνω απ’ όλα είναι η χάρις του Θεού. Οι άγιοι είναι καρπός της χάρης του Θεού. Και σήμερα δεν είναι δύσκολο να έχουμε την θεία χάρη, γιατί δίνεται πάντα με την ιδία γενναιοδωρία από τον Θεό μέσα στην εκκλησία του, σ’ εκείνους που την ζητούν με χαρά. Αυτό εξαρτάται από αμέτρητα, που έχουμε και ιδιαίτερες ευκαιρίες να πάρουμε την χάρη, όπου χρειάζεται συνεχής ανεφοδιασμός δια της θείας χάρης για να φιλτράζει ο χριστιανός και να ενισχύεται στους αγώνες του εναντίον του πολυμήχανου διαβόλου. Να χωρικείται εναντίον της ποικίλης αμαρτίας, η οποία είναι δελεαστική και ευποριστική, 'Εβδομη, όπως και να θεραπεύεται όταν πληγώνεται από αυτή. Αυτό δε επιπλέον με κύριο με το δύο απαραίτητα σε όλες μας χαράτρυπες μεσοπολιτικής, η Μετανάστευσης, Εξαγωγισμούς και της θέσης Κοινωνικής. Δυά μέσω αυτών, ο πικάτος λαβαίνει άπειρα αμαρτίες, ενώνεται με τον Κύριο, παίρνει κάθε φορά νέους χωρούς αγίας ζωής, νέες δυνάμεις. Γι’ αυτό άλλωστε ο Κύριος μάς δίνει μέσα στην εκκλησία του τα ερώτη Κοινωνικής, που τα έχουμε εμείς τόσο πρόξενα. Εστι, διά μέσου αυτών, πεποιημένου τον αγιασμό μας!

Αγίος και αγιότητα. Είναι η ψηλή κορυφή που οφείλομε να ανεβούμε, γιατί εκεί αξίζει! Στις εκεί επέτρεπε να ανεβεί η κορυφή της δημιουργίας του, ο άνθρωπος που έχει το προνόμιο και τον προορισμό να μοίραση προς τον Θεό και να κληρονομήσει την

What is most exciting about the continuing discoveries and excavations of Greek history is the fact that what is constantly being uncovered points to an incredible intellect which applied the same degree of rigorous excellence to everything it focussed on.

Naturally, much of what is shown leaves out the underside of what went on: the wars were bloody as states fought for territory and supremacy. Slaves existed, enabling the upper classes. In spite of this, it’s still exciting to keep learning about the Ancient Greeks.

Βασιλεία των Ουρανών! Είναι το μεγαλύτερο και ευγενέστερο ιδανικό που πρέπει να ελεγχθεί τις ψυχές μας για να γίνουμε αγωνιστές του Πνεύματος, αγνοί, καθαροί, τέλειοι! Να πηγαίνουμε «πάντα ψηλά, κι ολοί ψηλότερα, κι όλο στα ωραία και στα μεγάλα», όπως λέει και ο ποιητής μας Βερίτης, κοντά στον Αρχηγό μας! Δεν είναι αδύνατο, μπορούμε όλοι να το κάνουμε, αρκεί να το πάρουμε με ορέξη και ζήλο. Ας ζητάμε τη βοήθεια του Θεού και θα επιτύχουμε. Έτσι η οικογένειά μας, η δουλειά μας, το σχολείο μας, η κοινωνία μας για να δει σήμερα καλύτερες μέρες, έχει ανάγκη από αγίους, αυτοί μάς λείπουν.

PHILOPTOCHOS (by Eleni Kanakos, President)

My sincerest thanks go out to our Ladies and all the volunteers in our community whose efforts will make for a successful Fall Festival (October 7-9)!

Our next Philoptochos meeting is on Sunday, October 16 following liturgy in the board room. I hope that everyone can attend.

Please note the following upcoming events:

Sunday, November 6: Agape Tea at Saint Theodore’s Church from 2:00pm-4:00pm.

Thursday, November 10: Annual Thanksgiving Senior Luncheon in the Meletis Charuhas Hall from 12:00pm-3:00pm. Everyone is welcome. For reservations, please contact Mary Drakoulis (marydrak3@gmail.com or 703-273-4159).

Sunday, November 20: Our annual Thanksgiving Bake Sale after liturgy. Contact all Mary Varlas to place your order (703-965-4161 or LPbakesale@yahoo.com). The deadline for pre-orders is November 12.

For those of who have not sent in your stewardship, please do so at your earliest convenience. As always, I thank you for your support.

DAUGHTERS OF PENELOPE
(by Karen Polizos, President)

It was nice to see everyone at our September potluck dinner meeting! We had a chance to enjoy delicious foods and catch up with each other before Lynn Francis, District 3 Lt. Governor and Marshall, conducted Installation of our 2016-2017 Board Officers. We welcome our new board officers: Karen Polizos, President; Maria Vargas, Vice President; Kelly Gull, Corresponding Secretary; Elena Danigelis, Recording Secretary; Barbara Koltos, Treasurer; and Jane Moore, Chair Board of Governors and Special Projects. Our next meeting will be held Monday evening, October 10, 6:30pm in the board room.

Our annual jackets, hoodies, and sweatshirts drive to benefit Alternative House (Fairfax County) and Homestretch (Falls Church) will run through Tuesday, October 25. Items will be delivered as they are collected, with final delivery by November 1. We are collecting children, teen and adult sizes based on the needs and sizes we were given. Donated items should be new (preferred) or in perfect and clean condition. Bring your donation(s) to Saint Katherine. (If on a Sunday, please drop in the collection box outside of the hall. If during the week or Saturday, please take to the church office. An easy electronic sign up has been created at this link: http://bit.ly/DOP_Philoptochos_KeepWarm. All sizes needed are listed on this web page for you to choose from, and there are very clear instructions on the sign up page to select your donation(s) and where to bring your donation(s). If you prefer to make a monetary donation, please make check payable to DOP-Helle 283 and mail to Karen Polizos, 903 Holly Creek Drive, Great Falls, VA 22066. We will purchase items for you to meet the sizes needed. Thank you to everyone who has already supported this worthy cause!

BOOKSTORE

Exciting things are happening at the bookstore! We’ve ordered a whole range of beautiful new icons for namedays, as well as the traditional icons of Christ, the Theotokos, and other meaningful “windows into heaven.” We now have Orthodox greeting cards for special occasions and more children’s books than ever before. And you can make your purchases with your credit or debit card.

We want to keep expanding our stock and our services to the parish. Is there something special you think we should be offering? Is there a wonderful book you think others would enjoy? Just let us know.

New books, lot of new icons, new suppliers, new ways to pay! But there’s still a bowl of candy on the desk! Come visit and see for yourself.

WOMEN’S BOOK CLUB

We welcome all women interested in deepening their faith by reading and discussing Orthodox books to attend our first meetings of the book club on Wednesdays, October 5 and 19, 10:30am-12:00pm, in the ground-floor classroom. Please bring suggestions for books to read and potential field trips. We look forward to meeting new bibliophiles and continuing existing friendships. For further information, please contact Despina Raizes (703-216-8176 or 2draizes@gmail.com).

NATIONAL CHURCH MUSIC SUNDAY

Each year, on the first Sunday in October (on or after the Feast of Saint Romanos the Melodist, the patron saint of church musicians), parishes across the Archdiocese of America celebrate National Church Music Sunday. This commemoration was inaugurated by His Eminence Archbishop Iakovos of North and South America in 1982 and has been re-affirmed by His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America.

National Church Music Sunday is a day we set aside particularly to honor the stewardship of local choir members, psaltai, and music educators who serve their churches through the hymnology of our Orthodox Church. In addition, it is a day when we recognize the work of the metropolis choir federations as well as the National Forum of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians, who through their music ministry, strive to enhance the development of church choirs, church musicians, and liturgical music at metropolis and archdiocesan levels.

Saint Katherine church musicians will be honored and recognized on October 2 with a short presentation after the Divine Liturgy. We will also ask for contributions in support of the National Church Music Ministry. Your financial support helps the National Forum develop more liturgical music materials, hymnology resources for our Religious Education classes, and the continued training of our church musicians in the choir loft and at the psaltirion.
Monumental Missions Walk, October 15. Our 4th annual Monumental Missions Walk will be held Saturday, October 15, from 9:00am-12:00pm. Orthodox Christians will converge for a 3-mile walk, which will begin at our tent on the National Mall between 3rd and 4th Streets SW, next to the American Indian Museum. It will be led by a MMW guide and walked at a leisurely pace, passing the Capitol and other monuments and memorials in the area. We will pause at these treasured landmarks to discuss the historical and spiritual significance of the monument, in addition to offering a prayer for those whom the monument represents. Please consider asking family and friends to sponsor you for the walk. You may also register online at http://www.DCGreeks.com/MonumentalMissionsWalk. Checks should be made out to Saint Katherine Church with “Monumental Missions Walk 2016” on the memo line. Help us raise awareness and funds for the Orthodox Christian Mission Center (OCMC) and local charities, while walking and having fellowship with other Orthodox Christians. If you have any questions, text Eleni Porter at 703-470-9992 or email her at beporter1@verizon.net.

Food Pantry Collection, October 16. “I was hungry and you gave me food…” (Matthew 25:35). Our next food pantry collection will be Sunday, October 16. Our blue cloth bags will be distributed after liturgy on the prior two Sundays, October 2 and 9. Please use these or other blue cloth bags to bring the food to the church on October 16, as paper bags frequently tear. Please be generous, as there is great need in our surrounding community. Leave the bags in the atrium of the Meletis Charuhas Center. We will deliver them to the shelter that day.

OCMC NEWS

New OCMC Officers Announced. The OCMC has just announced their new officers for 2016-2018. We are pleased to announce that our own Betty Slanta has been chosen as Secretary. Congratulations, Betty!!

Long-Term Missionary Visited Saint Katherine. Jennifer Rice, OCMC long-term missionary visited Saint Katherine on Sunday, September 11, chanted the liturgy, and spoke after the Divine Liturgy. Jennifer is a graduate of Holy Cross School of Theology and will be leaving shortly for Guatemala. Drawing on her experiences and love for singing the sacred hymns of our Church, Jennifer will provide instruction in liturgical music in an effort to nurture the liturgical life and growth within the Church of Guatemala. Jennifer will offer her witness and assist the work of the local leaders and clergy in tending to the faithful in Guatemala. Jennifer also joined us last year and participated in the Monumental Mission Walk. If you would like to help sponsor Jennifer, make your checks payable to OCMC, include her name on the memo line, and mail it to Orthodox Christian Mission Center, 220 Mason Manatee Way, St. Augustine, FL 32086.

HOMELESS SHELTER

Clothing and Toiletries Collection. We continue to collect new or clean used clothes and unopened toiletries for the shelter year round. Bring your donations to our community center. We take them to the shelter every Sunday.

The shelter notified us recently that they have many other needs such as cleaning supplies, kitchen supplies, bed sheets and blankets, etc. These are all used as they find apartments for the homeless. Please see the full list at: http://www.nvfs.org/pages/page.asp?page_id=393678

If you wish to donate any of these items, please take them directly to the Bailey’s Crossroads Homeless Shelter at 3525 Moncure Avenue, Falls Church, VA 22041. The list is also on the Saint Katherine web site.

Hygiene and Survival Kits. We will again assemble over 250 hygiene and survival Kits for the homeless shelter. Each organization of the church has been informed of the items they need to provide. The items are all due on Sunday, November 20. Our Sunday School children will assemble the kits after church on Sunday, December 18.

LEMONADE MISSIONARIES

We heard a beautiful story recently that I would like to share. During Lent, we were blessed to have Bishop Neofitos of Kenya with us who gave us an inspiring Lenten retreat. As part of the Sunday of Orthodoxy, he taught the little children of our Sunday School the importance of icons. He also shared with them that the children of Kenya do not have many of the necessities that children of America have, such as shoes. Two of the children, sisters Lena and Mia (5½ and 4½) Georgeadis, children of Amy and Michael Georgeadis, were so moved by his discussion that they decided to help the children of Kenya the only way they knew. They set up a lemonade stand in from of their home and it for 25¢ per glass. Please see the adjacent photo. Lena and Mia were able to raise $52.00 for the children of Kenya. What a beautiful example of love in action.

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:19)

NEXT MISSIONS MEETING

Tuesday, October 11, 7:30pm

All are welcome to attend!
Adult Bible Studies, Sundays at 9:00am

Who We Are and What We Believe:
A Journey Through the Orthodox Faith
Guided by the Words of the Bible

This Year’s Topic:  The Book of Revelation

Using colorful PowerPoint slide presentations we will discuss how Scripture informs our Orthodox faith and Tradition.

The Book of Revelation is the final book of the Bible and one of the most mysterious and misunderstood documents ever written. Through the centuries its symbols and visions have given rise to anxiety and fear, but also to a strengthening of faith and hope. Taking a no-nonsense approach to this topic we will explore the Orthodox understanding of this great work. We will review the seeds of apocalyptic literature found in the Old Testament, examine statements made by Christ and the writers of the New Testament regarding life after death and the “end times,” and also discuss the views of the Church saints and theologians on these topics. Following this we will review the book itself chapter by chapter. We will explore the enigmatic symbols, perennial questions and timeless truths the book reveals with the hope that it will help us deepen our Orthodox faith.

Classes are held every Sunday from 9:00am-10:00am on the lower level of the Meletis Charuhas Center.

For questions, please contact Bill Polizos
(571-216-4077 or polizos@att.com)

All are welcome!!!
SHOWN BELOW is a list of families and individuals who participated in the 2016 Saint Katherine Stewardship Program through August 31, 2016. Thank you for responding to the needs of our church.

2016 STEWARDSHIP FORM

Giving is more than a responsibility—it is a privilege;
more than an act of obedience—it is evidence of our faith.
(William Arthur Ward, American educator)

If you have not yet made a stewardship commitment to your church for the year 2016, please take a moment and do so now.

I (my family) pledge(s) $_______ of financial stewardship to Saint Katherine Greek Orthodox Church.
